INSPIRATION

```
A                          G              D
It's easy to tell by the look in your eyes
      A                G        D                  A
No way to disguise you're not having a good day
      G        D                A           - G -
At least not one of your better days
          D              A
But there's still a smile on your face
          G       D              A
As you run the race of life
           G     D          A – G -D
Although it's not easy
          A            - G - D
That's plain to see

CHORUS
      F#m             E                    D         A
Oh I want you to know that you're an inspiration
         F#m                      E                          D
And it speaks to me of the faith you have and the grace you know
                  A
As you keep keeping on
           E                            D
Oh the world should know who you are
           E                      A      - G – D – A – G - D
'Coz to me you're an inspiration
```

A G D
As I look at your life and see the burden you bear
A G D A
My mind takes a turn to all the people who really care
G D A - G - D
And try so hard to be there
A G D
And the courage you show in the midst of it all
A G D A
Is visibly clear - but it can't be easy
G D A - G - D
As you face uncertainty

CHORUS

He's the beginning and the end
