

The Stranger

D

Me and my friend walking down the road

G D - G - F - D

Heading t'ward Emmaus carrying us a heavy load

D

Looking back to what had gone on

G D

Life had been good but two days ago it went wrong

G F D D - G - F - D

It all seemed wrong - and all hope was gone D - A - D

D

A stranger came and walked along side

G D - D - G - F - D

Didn't know who he was or what he chose to hide

D

He asked of us "why are you so sad"?

G D

And we replied "how come you've not heard?"

G

How Jesus the prophet was arrested and tried

D

They hung Him on a cross where He suffered and died

G

But we had hoped that He'd come to save

F G D

But by Friday night - they laid Him in a grave

G F D D - G - F - D

It all seems wrong - and all hope is gone". D - A - D

D

Now to our surprise He didn't share our grief

G D - D - G - F - D

Even told us we were fools for our unbelief

D

He reminded us of what the scriptures said

G

D

The Messiah would die – but would rise again

D

Rise again - rise again - D - A - D

D

It was getting late – it had been a long day

D

We persuaded the man to come to stay

D

It was good to be home – get off our feet

D

To sit at a table and prepare to eat

G

And what happened next you'd never believe

D

The man we had for company

G

Took some bread and broke it in two

F

D

And as we recognised Him – He disappeared from view

G

D

The stranger here – was God's Son

Bridge

D

Our hearts were on fire – our hearts were on fire

G

D

We had to tell somebody – we had to tell somebody

A

G

F - D

Now me and my friend – running down the road!
