

Welcome Home

D2

There's a world outside my window

F

It looks real good to me

Am

So I'll take up my inheritance

D2

Walk out this door free

D2

Now I'm having myself a good time

F

Loose and fancy free

Am

Now and then I think about home

D2

Do they ever think of me?

G

Please come home

F

Why don't you come home?

C Am C

Please come home

D2 - D2 - F - Am - D2

You're welcome home

D2

Thought I'd like this kind of living

F

Wine, women and song

Am

Having all I've ever wanted

D2

But why does it feel so wrong?

D2

Now the party's really over

F

Money and friends have gone

Am

I'm thinking what a fool I've been

D2

How can I go home?

G

F

Can I go home? I want to go home

C Am C

D2 - D2 - F - Am - D2

I want to go home Can I go home?

D2

With a heavy heart and a empty soul

F

I turn and head t'ward home

Am

After walking many weary miles

D2

Doubt and fear rage on

D2

Now my journey's nearly over

F

I'd like to run or hide

Am

Cos my father's running toward me

D

With his arms spread open wide

G

Father: Welcome home Son: Glad to be home

F

Father: I'm glad your home Son: It's good to be home

C Am C D2 - D7 - F - Am
Father: So glad your home, you're welcome home
D2
Son: It's good to be home

© Words and music by Michael Marcus Island Image Records 2011
--